

TelevisaUnivision is committed to conducting business with integrity, doing what's right, and complying with the law everywhere we operate. This Code of Conduct for Suppliers and Business Partners ("Code") documents the principles, guidelines, and expectations for establishing and maintaining a business relationship with us.

Applicability

The Code applies to any employee, agent, or other representative of a company, corporation or other entity that provides any goods or services on behalf of, at the request of, or in connection with work completed for TelevisaUnivision ("you"). By performing work for and on our behalf, you acknowledge that you will conduct yourself in accordance with this Code and its requirements. You are also responsible for ensuring that any subcontractors that you employ to supply goods or services to TelevisaUnivision comply with this Code.

Where this Code sets higher standards than what the law requires, we expect you to adhere to our standards. It supplements, but does not supersede, your contract with us. To the extent there is any inconsistency between this Code and any provision of your contract with us, the contractual provision will control.

Promoting and Monitoring Compliance

We expect you to establish processes, policies, and procedures designed to promote and monitor compliance with applicable laws and regulations, as well as the expectations set forth in this Code. You must take appropriate steps to ensure that the principles in this Code are communicated to your workers and throughout your own supply chain. We may ask to periodically acknowledge that you have reviewed and understand this Code and are willing to comply with its standards.

Compliance with this Code is subject to an audit at the discretion of TelevisaUnivision. Failure to comply with the Code may result in discontinuance of current and/or the prevention of future business relationships between you and TelevisaUnivision.
